From May

As most people know now, Fr Tom is moving back to his Order (The Marists) at the end of April. This will mean that we'll become a 'one priest parish', joining many others.

Some changes to services will be necessary. I've asked other parishes how they manage and they seem to survive. Usually they get an Order priest to cover a week-day mass to allow the Priest of the Parish to get a day off. I'm working on this at the moment. So from May 2018 I hope to have an Order/Supply priest to do Wed Mass. This might not be the same priest each week. Thus we won't be able to have funerals on Wednesdays.

Also, we won't have Sat Morning Mass as I'll be saying all Vigil masses. And Confessions will be heard on Sat eve 5.30 to 6pm only.

There'll be no change to the Sunday Masses, we'll have the Vigil and two Sunday morning masses. And lastly, we won't have mass on a Bank-Holiday. I'll probably go on a rota among the local parishes for Bank Holidays, (we'll keep you posted). The 1 pm Mass on a First Friday will cease too.

We going to need a good number of New Ministers of the Eucharist as I'll be visiting the sick once a month while offering them the option to receive communion from a Minister, Ditto for the Nursing Home.

Please put April 29th, 11.30am Mass in your diary. It's Fr Tom's Farewell Mass.

(The only constant is change)

Prayer for the Child in the Womb
Lord Jesus, you are the source and lover of life. Reawaken in us respect for every human life.
Help us to see in each child the marvellous work of our Creator.
Open our hearts to welcome every child as a unique and wonderful gift.
Guide the work of doctors, nurses and midwives. May the life of a mother and her baby in the womb be equally cherished and respected.
Help those who make our laws to uphold the uniqueness and sacredness of every human life, from the first moment of conception to natural death.
Give us wisdom and generosity to build a society that cares for all.
Together with Mary, your Mother, in whose womb you took on our human nature, help us to choose life in every decision we take.
We ask this in the joyful hope of eternal life with you, and in the communion of the Blessed Trinity.
Amen
